Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between Ashokrao Mane Group of Institutions
and Tata Technologies Limited
Date: January 21, 2016

Ashokrao Mane Group of Institutions (hereinafter referred to as AMGI), is a college of Engineering and Technology, having its campus at Vathar larf vadgaon, Halkanangale, Kolhapur, Maharashtra 416112

And

Tata Technologies Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Tata Technologies") is a company registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1956 and has among other businesses, in the business of providing products and services to OEM and Engineering Sectors in the area of Automotive and Aerospace, having its registered office at 25, Rajiv Gandhi Infotech Park, Pune - 411 057.

In the course of this MOU both parties to the MOU mentioned above have been individually referred to as "Party" and jointly as "Parties".

Objective and Terms

1. Tata Technologies under aegis of the Corporate Sustainability Program (CSP) has identified the need for imparting quality training in the "Design Engineering" domain to 3rd and 4th year Mechanical Engineering Students of AMGI. The main intent behind this initiative is to better equip young engineers to increase awareness and industry connect. The Parties intend to enter in to this MOU to provide a frame work evaluating the area of collaboration between them and establish certain rights and obligations between the Parties during such evaluation. Tata Technologies plans to roll out this e-learning program as a pilot project in AMGI.
2. This MOU further establishes an understanding between the Parties to do a pilot test for conducting a Design Engineering training for 3rd & 4th year Mechanical Engineering students ("Students") of AMGI using methods and aids generally associated with distance learning. This training is being planned for the first time by Tata Technologies and is currently being conceptualised by Tata Technologies' employees who are experienced in Design Engineering. This program is being planned as part of the Tata Technologies very successful "Ready Engineer Program" under the aegis of its Corporate Sustainability. The program for purposes of this agreement will be referred to as "Distance Ready Engineer" or "DRE" hereinafter.

5. The training will be done using CATIA V5 software which is owned by Tata Technologies. The license and maintenance of the software is provided by Tata Technologies in accordance with the terms and conditions of the license. All intellectual property rights generated under the program will solely remain with Tata Technologies.
6. The training may require tests to be conducted on a regular intervals during the entire course of DRE to evaluate the students' performance and based on the results, necessary guidance will be given to the students by the AMGI Professors (who have undergone the 'DRE Train the Professors Workshop') so as to achieve a satisfactory status.
7. AMGI commits to make available the students, professors, training rooms and licensed CATIA V5 software on work stations during the course of the of the DRE program as may be required. This is necessary for a successful implementation and completion of the DRE program.
8. Tata Technologies may charge some nominal fees for the training as agreed between the Parties. The nominal fee obtained from through this course will be utilised for corporate sustainability programs.
9. Tata Technologies may hire the trained students and will have the 1st right of refusal for selection after these students complete their graduation which would mean that Tata Technologies may be the first company to interview these Students.
10. Proprietary Information disclosed by Tata Technologies in the course of discussions and training under this MOU shall be kept highly confidential. AMGI shall not use Tata Technologies' name or its trademarks or make any reference to the MOU or the DRE program in any manner of publicity without Tata Technologies' prior written consent.
11. Parties are aware that the business activities of Tata Technologies are self-regulated by the "Tata Code of Conduct" which is incorporated by reference herein. It can be accessed and downloaded from <http://www.tatatechnologies.com>.
12. This MOU is effective from the date of signing and will remain valid unless terminated by either Party, upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other Party.
13. This MOU shall be construed, and the legal relations between the Parties hereto shall be determined, in accordance with the substantive laws of India. The parties shall refer their disputes to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts at Pune, India.
14. Neither this MOU nor any negotiations or other understandings prior or pursuant to the execution of the MOU shall constitute a binding and legally enforceable MOU, nor give rise to any liability, between the Parties.

The Parties have caused their respective duly authorized representatives to execute and deliver this Agreement on the date mentioned herein above.

India Site License Agreement (Case Starter $30)

2023-24

This Agreement establishes the relationship between Ashokrao Mane Group of Institutions (AMGOI), and Harvard Business School Publishing (HBSP) regarding membership in the India Site License Program and the terms associated with it.

Harvard Business School Publishing publishes cases, reprints, and book chapters Ashokrao Mane Group of Institutions (AMGOI), is a qualified institution of higher learning in India that wishes to use HBSP materials in its management degree, diploma and/or Executive Education programs. Accordingly, HBSP hereby licenses Institution on a non-exclusive basis to use the HBSP Materials specified according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Term and Territory

1. This Agreement shall be effective from 15th September 2023 till 14th September 2024
2. This Agreement is effective in India only. It excludes programs that the Institution operates at campuses or other locations outside India.
3. Upon the termination of this Agreement, all rights revert to HBSP and Institution shall immediately thereafter discontinue reproduction and sale of the Materials. Within six months after the termination or expiration of the Agreement, a final accounting shall be made.

Access to Materials

Institution will obtain electronic access to master copies of and/or links to HBSP materials through HBSP's single click service, and will in turn distribute these copies to its duly enrolled students in print format. Electronic distribution of SingleClick links is not permitted, unless provided for under Schedule W. Unlicensed use of the Materials will result in immediate termination of the Agreement. Institution agrees to the following terms and conditions:

1. Institution is responsible for diligently enforcing the terms of this Agreement, and in particular for seeing that only authorized users can access the products, that only genuine HBSP licensed content is used, and that all information, including the number of actual users, is fully and accurately reported to HBSP. Failure to adhere to these requirements is grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement.
2. Institution will not share its username identification and password beyond those authorized by HBSP policies, and shall not disclose the identity or location of the links from which it accesses Materials.

3. Institution may use electronic masters only for production of course materials during the term of the agreement. Whether protected or unprotected, the content files which contain the electronic masters remain the property of Harvard Business School Publishing, and are authorized for use only by those staff members of Institution involved in course pack production for students. Electronic redistribution of protected or unprotected content files is not permitted. The masters themselves must not be stored, saved, emailed, shared, or posted on any course site. Doing so is in direct violation of the agreement and the school will be held liable for copyright violation.
4. Institution will assign no more than two administrators to be the designated people responsible for downloading master copies and reporting activities. Institution will provide contact information for the administrators to HBSP by emailing acadlicenses@hbsp.harvard.edu.
5. Institution will report to HBSP any violations of these terms, and any unauthorized access to, or unauthorized use of, HBSP materials, and will assist HBSP as requested in any subsequent investigation.

If HBSP notifies Institution of any cases withdrawn Institution agrees to remove such cases from any filing system -- print or electronic -- immediately and to cease the production of these items. Institution shall remove all masters from any filing system within 6 months of use.

Institution agrees not to use any HBSP materials that have not been supplied by HBSP without prior written approval, nor to permit sale or distribution of unapproved versions of HBSP materials. This license supersedes any right and any reporting mechanism of any Reproduction Rights Organization (RRO) or other collective copyright management organization for which Institution might otherwise be eligible.

Institution will maintain books and records to document all copies of the materials accessed by Institution users for a period of not less than two years. HBSP and/or its authorized representatives shall have the right during normal business hours to inspect, at its own expense, Institution books and records insofar as they pertain to the distribution of the materials pursuant to this Agreement. If any inspection discloses inaccurate reporting of past usage, and that inaccurate reporting resulted in over- or under- estimation of the license fee to which HBSP is entitled hereunder, the appropriate amount shall be immediately paid or refunded to the party entitled thereto. Should such audit uncover errors or omissions greater than 10% of what was reported for the period examined, Institution shall reimburse HBSP for the cost of the audit.

Force Majeure Event

Each party is excused from performance under this Agreement and shall not be liable for any delay in performance or non-performance, in whole or in part, caused by the occurrence of any event or contingency beyond the control of such party including, but not limited to, work stoppages, fires, civil disobedience, riots, rebellions, natural disasters, acts of God, acts of war or terrorism, actions or regulations of governmental authorities, epidemics, pandemics or other hazards to public health, and similar occurrences. The party who has been so affected shall promptly give written notice to the other party and shall use its best efforts to resume performance when the force majeure has abated.

Rules for Use of Harvard Business School Publishing Names, Trademarks and Logos

All customers and distributors must adhere to the following rules for the use and display of Harvard Business School Publishing names, trademarks and logos. These rules are binding on you, and failure to adhere to them is grounds for termination of the relationship.

1. You are authorized to use the name HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL PUBLISHING, HARVARD BUSINESS PUBLISHING, the initials HBSP, and the Harvard Business School shield with or without, accompanied by the HBSP name or initials.
2. With the exception of Paragraph 3, you are not authorized to use the Harvard Business School shield standing alone; nor the names HARVARD, HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL, HBS; nor any other variation of the names or shields of Harvard University or Harvard Business School. For example, you may use HARVARD BUSINESS Press, NOT Harvard Business School eLearning.
3. You may use the name HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL CASES when referring to those cases.
4. You may use only logo files that we provide to you.
5. You may not register any trademark that contains the word HARVARD, any Harvard shield or logo, the initials HBS or HBSP or any other reference to Harvard, nor any words or marks similar to these.
6. If you have any questions or uncertainty as to these rules, contact us and we will advise you on proper compliance.
7. Harvard Business School Publishing reserves the right to change or amend these rules at any time. If we do, we will notify you and advise you on proper compliance.
8. Advertising copy, marketing materials, or press releases (print or online) referencing the above mentioned trademarks or using the above mentioned logos must receive prior approval in writing from HBSP.
